Located 15 km from Junagadh in Ganthila village by the Ozat River, Shree Umiya Mandir was built as a grand tribute to Maa Umiya due to growing community devotion. The construction began in 2004 under the leadership of Dr. Nileshi Dhulesia, a young builder from Junagadh, who led the entire project with professional precision and heartfelt dedication.

The temple was completed beautifully with well-designed landscaping and donor plaques. On 17th April 2008, the eternal holy flame from Unjha's original temple was ceremoniously installed after a pad-yatra.

Dr. Nilesh Dhulesia ensured inclusive participation through donation programs, enabling even the poorest families to contribute. Under his leadership, various facilities were developed:

48-room Atithi Bhavan (guest house)

Dining hall for 1,000 people

Marriage hall with capacity for 1,000 people

Ideal Marriage Program hosting up to 4 free weddings daily

Stage and guest suites, including Govani AC Hall

Yagna Cottages for weekly Gayatri Havan

He continues to lead as temple president, overseeing events like Patotsav and Khel Mahakumbh, and has remained deeply involved—physically, mentally, and financially—in the temple's ongoing spiritual and infrastructural development.
